♥ Day 02 Shanghai Tour sightseeing

Morning

Yuyuan Garden: Find yourself lost in the ancient, yet modern area of Shanghai. The restaurant located right in front of the gate has served many presidents and ministers around the world. You can also find many venues trying to sell their best products they can offer. Be sure to bargain with them and you may find a great souvenir! Follow the guide into the garden and find the spectacular Suzhou style Garden. Here you can see much of the ancient China and how people might have lived their lives back then...

Optional Attraction: The Shanghai World Financial Center: this is the famous tower that is currently third tallest in the world. It has a unique rectangular opening at the top of the tower for wind tunneling. The Observation deck is located above the opening allowing you to see much of Shanghai, and also enjoy the tallest observation deck in the world! See what is it like to truly have a birds view of the Shanghai Sky!

1933 Old Butcher: 1933 Old Butcher, where used to be the biggest Slaughter House in east asia. With these historical buildings blended with modern fashionable elements, has become a new landmark of Shanghai. It is generally positioned as a place that absorbs the upscale and fashionable quality of Bund 18, the vitality of Xintiandi, and the artistic atmosphere of Tianzifang, combines creative experience and creative production, and assimilates interaction and inspiration.

M50 Creative Garden : Shanghai Chunming Roving Factory is located at No.50 Moganshan Road on the south bank of the Suhe Creek. Within a few years Shanghai Chunming Metropolitan Industrial Park has introduced more than 130 artists who come from over 10 Chinese Mainland provinces and 16 foreign countries and districts. Among them, ShangArt Gallery established by Swiss Lorenz and BizArt Center established by Italian Davide Quadrio are the best galleries in China and gain high reputation

Tianzifang : Situated on Taikang Road (the road was built about 80 years ago and there are many old Shanghai style buildings, such as Shikumen, has a floor area of over 20,000 sqm. This backyard factory from the 1930s has now been converted into studios for designers from the US, Japan, Belgium, France and other countries. Popularly known as the Soho of Shanghai, it is home to over 100 visual art, industrial art and interior designers.
