TOUR ITINERARY

♥ Day 01 Expo activity.

A full day at the main attraction of this tour; the Shanghai World Expo. Come see what China and the world has become in the recent years!

♥ Day 02 Shanghai Tour sightseeing

Yuyuan Garden: Located in the middle of Shanghai, you can see the new and the ancient of China with the Suzhou Style Garden, and outside the garden where busy venues set shop you can have your familiar cup of coffee at the Starbucks. Enjoy the busy environment of the neighbor as well as the tranquil setup of the garden. You will not find this kind of mix anywhere else!

Optional Attraction: The Shanghai World Financial Center: If you'd like visit this new tall building that just opened recently. It is one of the tallest Buildings in China and the tallest observation deck in the World. You can over look the Jingmao Tower, the Bund, the river, and see what it feels like to walk on thin glass between you and air...

Pujiang Cruise (from South bund to Yangpu Bridge): A Huangpu River Cruise is one of the best ways to see both old and new Shanghai.

♥ Day 03 Shanghai Tour sightseeing

Today you will visit the Shanghai Urban Planning Exhibition Hall, which chronicles Shanghai's past, present and future

Shanghai Museum: It's the biggest museum in China, Shanghai Museum has a collection of over 120,000 pieces of Chinese art & cultural heritages. The museum is especially famous for its treasures of bronzes, ceramics, paintings, and calligraphy.

The Bund, Once the home of the foreign traders and major banks, the embankment has taken on a new vitality; lovely old European-style buildings mix with futuristic developments, chic restaurants, top end shops and bars offer plenty to see and do – and by night it's magic!

Nanjing Road (Commercial Street): One of the most famous shopping streets in the world. Giant shopping centers, specialist boutiques, international brands, local upmarket goods - it's all here; it's very busy, and at night it really glitters. It's a fascinating glimpse of modern, commercial China.

In the evening you enjoy a wonderful Acrobatic Show.
