Day 03 Shanghai City Tour (B/L/D)

Your Shanghai city tour starts today after breakfast. Today's major attractions are:

- ★ The Shanghai World Financial Center: The awe inspiring unique sky scraper in Shanghai. Here you can see most of Shanghai on a good clear day. The Bund, Nanjing Road, and maybe even Yu-Garden...
- ★ The Bund: was originated by banks and consulates and hotels other countries has built starting in 1846 when the British opened an office. Other countries include Japan, America and other European countries. This is not a historical tourist site as you can see traditional architectural buildings in Downtown Shanghai.
- ★ Yuyuan Garden: The garden is not the only thing one can observe about Chinese history. The surrounding area is a large market place where restaurants, cafes, and vendors are selling many objects around you. There is also a restaurant many presidents from the world came to visit to taste of the finest dumplings around.
- ★ The Former French Concession Located in the middle of Shanghai, this place served as the French Concession established in 1849. The area covered by the former French Concession was, for much of the 20th century, the premier residential and retail districts of Shanghai
